The Power of Associations is the Power of America

American associations contribute in direct and significant ways to U.S. economic stability and societal advancement. They help build up vital industries, professions, workers, businesses and communities.

Associations Live at the Intersection of U.S. Economy and Public Service.

Associations Nationwide

- >60,000 associations
- >200,000 employees
- >$53 billion in revenue

Associations in New Hampshire

- 169 associations
- 865 employees
- $67 million in wages

New Video: The Power of Associations is the Power of America

The Essential Pillars and Purpose of American Associations