The Power of Associations is the Power of America

American associations contribute in direct and significant ways to U.S. economic stability and societal advancement. They help build up vital industries, professions, workers, businesses and communities.

Associations Live at the Intersection of U.S. Economy and Public Service.

Associations Nationwide
- >60,000 associations
- >200,000 employees
- >$53 billion in revenue

Associations in Ohio
- 968 associations
- 5,560 employees
- $374 million in wages

NEW VIDEO
The Power of Associations is the Power of America

The Essential Pillars and Purpose of American Associations

- Product & Safety Standards: Setting standards for everything from children’s toys to construction.
- Education & Training: Providing America’s largest source of post-college skills training.
- Diversity, Equity & Inclusion: Confronting inequities in hiring, advancement, compensation and organizational culture.

---